KINSHASA, April 9 (Reuter) - Zaire President Mobutu Sese Seko ordered a special requiem mass to be said for the presidents of neighbouring Burundi and Rwanda, killed when their plane exploded at Kigali airport.

The mass for Rwandan President Juvenal Habyarimana, Burundi President Cyprien Ntaryimira and the thousands of civilian victims of the Rwanda killings was celebrated on Friday in Mobutu's tropical headquarters of Gbadolite.

Zaire has announced eight days of national mourning to mark the deaths, but on Saturday shops in Kinshasa were trading as normal and roads were busy with traffic.
