

Luxembourg says honorary consul killed in Rwanda

Reuters, April 15, 1994

LUXEMBOURG, April 15 (Reuter) - Luxembourg's honorary consul in Rwanda was killed in the aftermath of the assassination of the Rwandan president, the Foreign Ministry said on Friday.

Charles Shamakiga, honorary consul for Luxembourg since 1986, was killed on April 7, a ministry official said. No further details of the killing were yet available.

He said that Shamakiga, 56, was married with four children, one of whom lives in Brussels.

Efforts were being made to evacuate the three children remaining in Kigali to Brussels with Belgian official help, he said, adding that no mention was made of Shamakiga's wife in the evacuation plan.

(c) Reuters Limited 1994