Belgian Peacekeepers Leaving

The Belgian contingent will withdraw today, according to press reports. [redacted] about 56 percent of Belgians are still willing to use troops to protect Belgian lives and interests in Africa, but they are not willing to accept further casualties among their countrymen, according to Belgian press reports.

— The departure of the Belgians leaves about 1,700 Bangladesh and Ghanaian peacekeepers and roughly 300 military observers from 20 countries. [redacted]
