

Taxi blast toll revised

AFP, May 3, 1992

KIGALI, May 3 (AFP) - A bomb blast in a collective taxi in the Rwandan capital on Saturday killed four people and wounded 13, officials said here on Sunday.

Police earlier gave a death toll of six. Two of the bodies were burned beyond recognition.

A passenger who jumped out of the minibus just before the explosion is under arrest.

It was the 12th attack of the kind this year in Rwanda, where rebels have been operating since October 1990. Nobody has yet claimed responsibility for the blasts.

gu/jaw/fc AFP AFP SEQN-0074